

Recognizing Leaders

The NAAAP Vision & Mission

"We make leaders!" is the vision of the National Association of Asian American Professionals/North American Association of Asian Professionals (NAAAP).

Our Mission

- Cultivate and empower leaders for professional excellence
- Connect accomplished professionals for mutual success
- Engage and participate with the community-at-large
- Inspire leaders to make a meaningful difference in government, education, business, and society

For more than a century, Asians have overcome obstacles to make significant contributions in both America and Canada. Their contributions have added tremendously to the success and prosperity of North America. The NAAAP 100 Committee is paying tribute to leaders who exemplify our vision and mission.

Qualification Criteria

We are currently accepting nominations for leaders who meet the following criteria:

- Applicant must be notable in the press and achieved success in his or her profession.
- Applicant must have made a significant contribution to the world-wide community.
- Applicant must be a leader whose achievements have impacted the mainstream, national, and/or international community.

Applicant must align with the vision and mission of NAAAP.

Please submit this nomination form to: naaap100@naaap.org by March 15, 2010.

About NAAAP

The National Association of Asian American Professionals (NAAAP) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that cultivates and empowers Asian leaders through professional development, community service, and networking. NAAAP members work together to make a difference in their careers and in their communities.

Founded in 1982, NAAAP now has a presence in more than 25 cities in the United States and Canada. With more than 3,000 active members, our message of leadership and professional excellence reaches over 20,000 Asians in North America.

There are currently more than 25 chapters, ventures, and affiliates across major cities in North America. NAAAP, with a growing membership of more than 3,000, includes a diverse group of leaders and working professionals with various levels of educational and industry backgrounds: corporate, small business, non-profit, academic, entertainment, and government. NAAAP inspire Asians of all descents to work together on career advancement and to make significant contributions to the community.
